Call to Worship

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ + and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you.

And also with you.

Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord, let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.

O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth. You have set your glory above the heavens.

Give thanks to the Lord of lords, to Him Who alone does great wonders, Who by His understanding made the heavens, Who spread out the earth upon the waters, Who made the great lights—the sun to govern the day, the moon and stars to govern the night. He determines the number of the stars and calls them each by name.

Great is our Lord and mighty in power; His understanding has no limit.

But our iniquities have separated us from our God; our sins have hidden His face from us, so that He will not hear. We look for light, but all is darkness; for brightness, but we walk in deep shadows. We look for deliverance, but it is far away.

For our offenses are many in His sight, and our sins testify against us. Our offenses are ever with us, and we acknowledge our sins.

The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love. He will not always accuse, nor will He harbor His anger forever; He does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities.

From the rising of the sun to the place where it sets, the name of the Lord is to be praised.

“The days are coming,” declares the Lord, “when I will raise up to David a righteous Branch, a King who will reign wisely and do what is just and right in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. This is the name by which he will be called: The Lord our Righteousness.”

Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.

“Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; He is Christ the Lord.”

Let the name of the Lord be praised forever and ever.

♪ Come, your hearts and voices raising

Let us pray. Almighty God, You made this holy night shine with the brightness of the true Light. Grant that as we have known on earth the wonder of that Light, we may also behold Him in all His glory in the life to come; through Your only Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Luke 2:1–20

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. <sup>2</sup>(And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) <sup>3</sup>And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. <sup>4</sup>And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) <sup>5</sup>To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. <sup>6</sup>And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. <sup>7</sup>And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. <sup>8</sup>And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. <sup>9</sup>And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. <sup>10</sup>And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. <sup>11</sup>For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. <sup>12</sup>And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. <sup>13</sup>And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace,
Good will toward men.

<sup>15</sup>And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto

Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. <sup>16</sup>And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. <sup>17</sup>And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. <sup>18</sup>And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. <sup>19</sup>But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. <sup>20</sup>And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them. ## Prayer

Eternal God, on a night such as this You sent Your only-begotten Son into the world to be Savior and Lord. He offered you His perfect life of love and His innocent death on the cross to free us from the debt we owed and the punishment we deserved. You raised Him from the grave, accepted His sacrifice, and forgave the sins of all people forever.

Father in heaven, pour out Your Holy Spirit into our hearts that we may rejoice in Jesus' coming with confident faith and unshakable expectation. Strengthen us in faith as we hear His promises in Your Word and in the holy Sacrament of His body and blood. Protect us from the power of Satan, and when we are tempted, focus our eyes on Jesus who gives us true and eternal pleasures and everlasting joy.

On this holy night we pray that you would keep in Your care all whom we love, especially those who live far from us and those who have become separated from us because of misunderstanding or bitterness. Help those who are sick or troubled in body or mind, those who are fighting temptation, those who are alone, and those who do not know You by faith. Let the message of the Savior's birth bring joy where there is sadness, courage where there is fear, and hope where there is doubt. From hearts of faith, may every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord and may every soul finally come to share in His eternal reign, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.
